

How We Become Ill/How We Become Well

A day of inner exploration as we learn how we become ill/how we become well. Through the use of integrated imagery, energy, and morphology discover your body's own healing powers and abilities. This will be a shared journey of transformation where you will come to understand how to use these miraculous tools in your everyday life.

Please visit the website for upcoming workshops or contact us for more information

John Carroll is an intuitive healer, teacher and spiritual counselor who integrates mental imagery with his God-given gift of his hands. He uses the healing power of prayer, energy and light combined with integrative mental imagery to give clients, the opportunity to find their healing possibility with God and their higher self as their means of healing.